

The Pocahontas Times.

Hear, Land o' Cakes and brither Scots,
Fare ye weel to Johnny O'Grady,
If there's a hole in 'your coat,
I rede ye tent it;
A chiel's amang you takin' notes,
An' faill he'll prent it.—RINGS.

Local Events.

Circuit court begins in Lewisburg this week.

J. C. Price, of Clover Dick, will move to Dunmore in May.

The Holiness people are building a new church near Mountain Grove.

A large number of persons attended the stock sales here last Monday.

L. M. McClintic has qualified as administrator of H. H. McClintic. He left no will.

The snow at some places in the mountains here is about four feet deep, and at other places the drifts are enormous.

E. I. Holt, of Academy, is preparing to light his store and house with acetylene gas and has a 25 light machine ready to put in.

Wanted:—Position as single entry book-keeper or clerk in store. Have good experience in both lines. Address "X", care this office.

The best bed spring at the lowest possible price, those manufactured by M. C. Hogsett, Marlinton, W. Va.

Sheriff E. N. Moore with E. F. McLaughlin as guard started to Moundsville last Monday with John Robinson.

Work has been begun on a siding at Burnside, the point nearest the village of Academy on the new railway. The trains stop there at the request of a passenger and can be signalled by any one wanting to get on.

Winter has been doing some tedious lingering in the lap of spring on Elk and in upper Pocahontas and the amiable virgin seems slow about waking up the flowers and spreading her carpets of green.

A citizen not from way back wanted to know of a Marlinton merchant why he was not as particular to please the men in the way of head finery as he was the ladies.

The Associated Press dispatches say that the postoffice at Gillespie was discontinued April 15th. Mail for that place is to be directed to Durbin. Special mail service has been discontinued to Brady in this county.

The Lord's Supper will be administered in the Presbyterian church at Academy the 4th Sabbath of this month. The preliminary services will begin on Saturday at 11 o'clock. Rev. G. W. Nickell will assist.

The crossing at the temporary court-house is ready for use. It will be a safe and happy convenience for parties who wish to avoid the rush and crowd at the depot crossing when passing through Marlinton.

Emmett Lightner, from lower Elk, was in Marlinton last Friday for a load of goods for L. D. Sharp. He had with him some toothsome table supplies which were readily disposed of at living prices for buyer and seller.

The spring session of the musical association will be held at Buckeye. Leaders and singers are requested and expected to brighten up on music and attend the association ready and willing to work in this grand institution. Due notice of the time will be given.

S. B. Moore, Pres.

The 33 inch Easter snow lay on the mountains so long that the local weather prophets predicted another snow would fall before it disappeared. The same sort of snow came Saturday night and Sunday, melting on the low lands and remaining on the uplands until there is more snow in the county than can generally be seen, even in midwinter.

Last Sabbath was a lively day in Marlinton religious services. Bells were rung for two Sabbath Schools and three preaching services. Rev. Lawson, the new M. E. S. preacher, officiated at 11 a. m. Rev. Crabtree was to preach at 3 p. m. but was prevented from filling his appointment. Pastor Nickell preached at night.

For one or two days last week an exciting fusillade was kept up by sharp shooting from opposite sides of the river just above the bridge, shooting at a dipper with unknown results. Its facility for dodging bullets and going long distances under water was simply marvellous. The Frenchman's flea is under an eclipse for the present in proverbial matters.

The sale of Jno. J. Strang & Co's railway outfit took place last Monday by W. A. Bratton, Special Commissioner. The property was put up by piecemeal and brought $1655, S. J. Payne being the principal purchaser forcing the bidding on the most important articles. The outfit was then offered as a whole. Mr. Coles, of New York City and S. J. Payne ran it up to $1900 and it was knocked down to the latter at that sum.
